US Navy League Cadet Corps Congratulates Outstanding Cadets

Santa Barbara, California –

LT Dawn Rademacher, Commanding Officer, AIRPAC Squadron, offers congratulations for the outstanding efforts and achievement of local Navy League Cadets at the 5th Anniversary Navy League Cadet Corps Aviation Training.

Five AIRPAC cadets participated in a week long training aboard Naval Base San Diego. Training included classroom evolutions, physical training, and a tour of the USS Midway. Deserving cadets earned timed to train on the VMAT-101 F-18 flight simulator. Of course, part of the fun included watching a San Diego Padre's baseball game, where SLPO Roy Hapeman was chosen to participate in the opening ceremony color guard.

Once again AIRPAC cadets showed their training and continued desire to succeed by being selected for many outstanding awards.

Able Cadet Austin Thompson, Top Gun Award,
Top Honor Cadet Overall Training

Able Cadet Colby Newnham, Wings of Gold Award,
Second Honor Cadet Overall Training

Apprentice Cadet Noah Seibert, Top Gun Award,
Honor Cadet, Black Sheep Squadron

Honor Company, Black Sheep Squadron
